

I find it inexplicable that the FCC permitted the Sinclair Group to mandate the broadcast of a clearly politically-biased TV show about John Kerry's Vietnam service. I personally do not see how this could be anything but a clear violation of campaign finance laws, as well as laws regulating public broadcasting stations.

The Sinclair's actions are despicable, and the FCC's reaction is inexcusable. This situation must be rectified immediately.